

ARIEL VIEW

BIO

Ariel View is an all-girl, pop-punk band from Southern California. Over the last 6 years, Ariel View have played everywhere, from backyard shows to the most iconic stages across the country. Their music draws inspiration from acts like Paramore, Green Day, and the Strokes, while infusing their unique indie-rock vibe to create a sound all their own. Their latest record, Bury My Head, emulates the emo and pop-punk powerhouses of the 2000's, yet still maintains the band's passionate, authentic indie sound. As a queer-identified band, they consciously empower the LGBTQ+ community, and craft relatable testaments of love - and heartbreak - for all identities.

Bury My Head is out now on Ariel View's own label: Velvet Sun Records.
